Moy Ogilvie, Esq., To Serve As President of the Lawyer's Collaborative for Diversity

HARTFORD, Connecticut, June 2nd, 2011- The Lawyer's Collaborative for Diversity (LCD) is pleased to announce the appointment of Moy Ogilvie as the 2011-2012 President for a one year term. Over the next year, Moy will work with the organization's Board of Directors and Committee Members to oversee the continuing success of the LCD's Programs and collaboration with Connecticut law firms, corporate law departments, affinity bar associations and public sector entities. "With Moy's professionalism and the respect that she has in Connecticut's legal community, I can only imagine the possibilities during her tenure", said Carolyn Golden Hebsgaard, LCD's Executive Director.

Moy is a 1995 graduate of Boston University School of Law and she is currently a Partner in the Products Liability Practice Group in McCarter & English's Hartford Office. Ms. Ogilvie currently serves on the Federal Grievance Committee for the United States District Court for Connecticut. Additionally, Ms. Ogilvie sits on the Board of Directors for the Children's Law Center, Inc. and for Hartford Youth Scholars Foundation. She also handles various pro bono matters for Lawyers for Children and Statewide Legal Services.

The mission of the Lawyer's Collaborative for Diversity is to unite the resources, energy and commitment of Connecticut's leading law firms, corporations, public sector entities, law schools and state bar associations in the joint mission of making Connecticut a more attractive place for attorneys of color and women to practice law and find satisfying professional opportunities.
